"... SEEK AND YE SHALL FIND ..."

All of life is a search: a restless search, successful for some, fruitless for others.

Youth, however, is the time when people's lives are most seriously dedicated to seeking the tools of life. In youth we seek knowledge and the wisdom to use this knowledge; we seek mental, spiritual, and physical strength: the three main aspects of a complete person. We seek adults whom we can respect and whose lives we can emulate in building our characters; we seek also enjoyment. In short, we want life itself: a faith, a philosophy, and a morality. We know we will find them.

TO YOU WE DEDICATE . . .

For innumerable contributions to the students of Northampton High School, for boundless enthusiasm in all endeavors, and for excellence of performance as a teacher, guidance counselor, and sponsor, we the Staff of the 1966 TORCH, dedicate this annual to MRS. LORETTA W. SMALLEY.

PRECISION

Early in the plane geometry course, basic constructions, using only a compass and straight edge are taught. One of these is the bisecting of an angle, demonstrated by Wayne Robinson, Steve McCready, and Kathyanne Parker.

In December the students have the opportunity of transferring their knowledge of geometry into application in the drawing of designs and the construction of figures and mobiles.

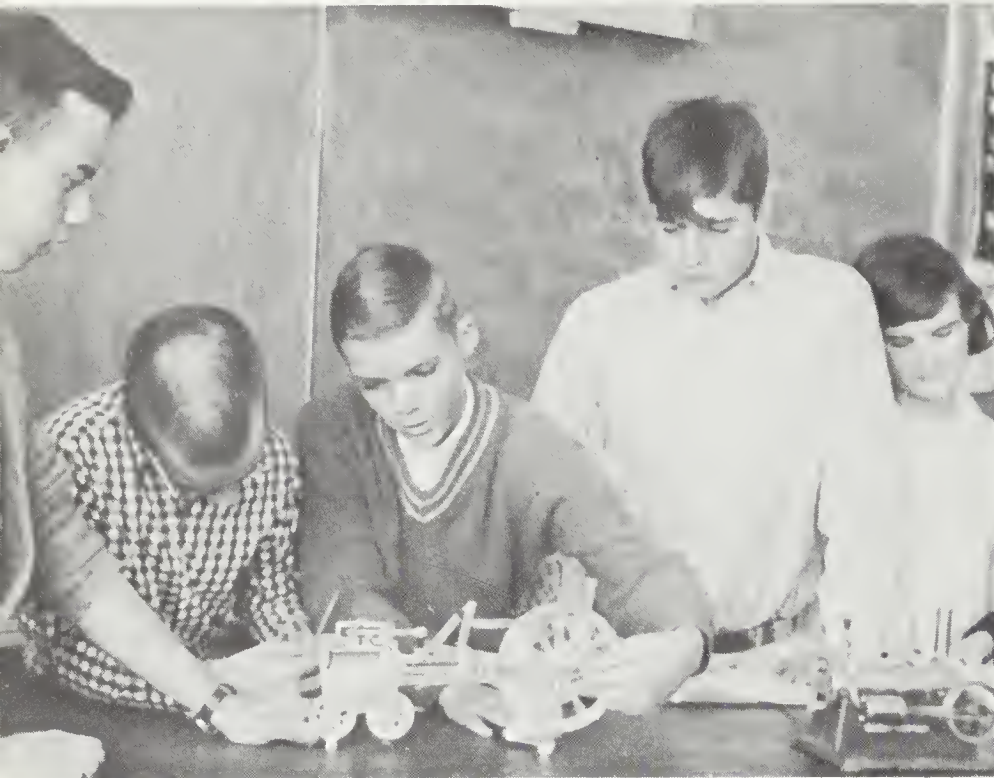

William Carpenter, Roland Kellam, and Mary Scott experiment with fractions.

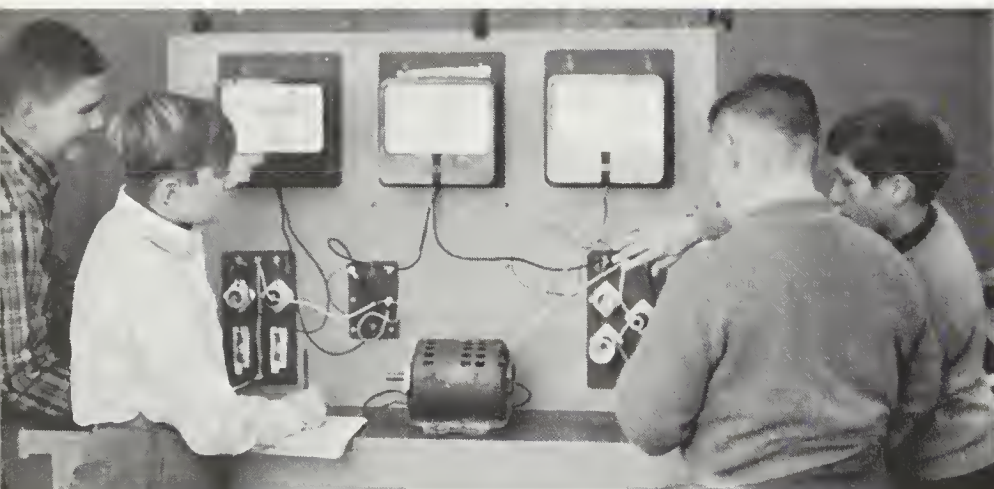

As a part of their math course, Delores Mears, Billy Brittingham, and Barbara Moore work with fractions.

STUDENTS DISCOVER WONDERS OF SCIENCE

Norman Gladden, Andrew Stitt, Steve Jones, Ben Mears, and Nancy Parks learn about steam engines in their eighth grade science class.

The electric motor reveals one of the wonders of progress to Chris Carpenter, Tommy Bell, Danny Kellam, and Chip Manuel.

As a part of their Physics course Dick Shannonhouse and Rawlings Scott learn the advantages of using an inclined plane.

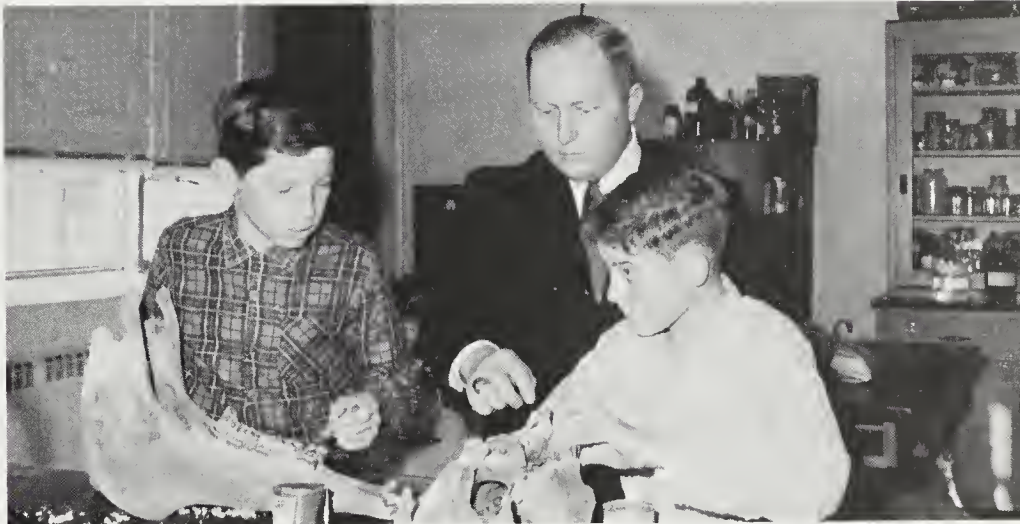

Danny Gershowitz, Steve Bralley, John Lansdale, and

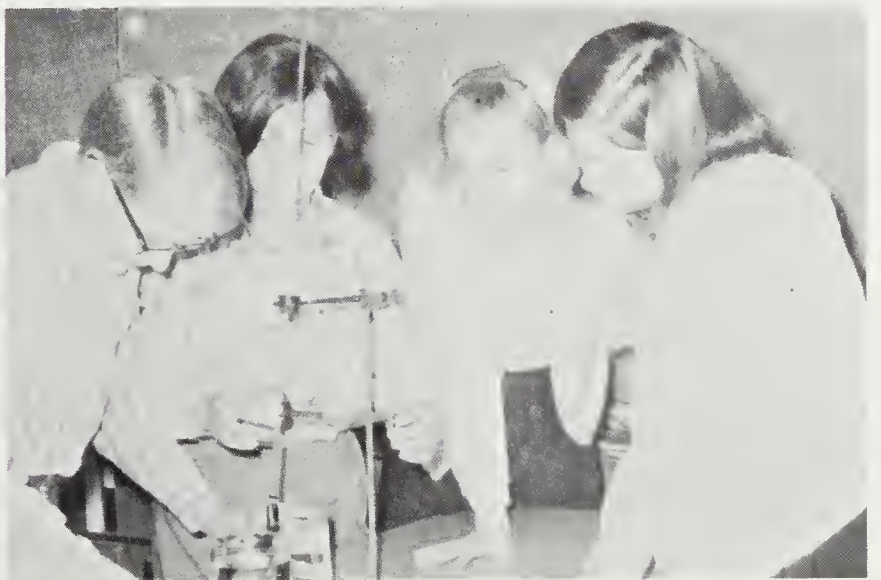

Ernie Gibb demonstrate the effectiveness of pulleys.

In chemistry lab, Mary Lee Outten and Jimmy Mitchell conduct an experiment in distillation.

Assembling the skeleton of a horse, Steve Brady, Mr. Oakley, and William Spady look skeptical. "Are you sure he's all here?" asks Mr. Oakley.

Members of the sophomore biology class Buck Mapp, Christine Moore, Candy James, and Ketsy Gibb are intrigued by osmosis.

Stephen Vass finds the globe helps in a study of geography.

SOCIAL STUDIES AND PROMOTE

Through social studies students at all grade levels learn about the past in order to evaluate the present and to anticipate the future.

Tom Fountaine, Cindy Mathewson, Rita Rottzong, Margaret Rogers, Jimmy Mitchell, and Bess Custis discuss bills to be presented in Government class.

Jeff Davis, John Lansdale, Patricia Tankard, and Betty Jane Rogers participate in a panel discussion on Viet Nam.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE UNDERSTANDING

The Foreign Language Department offers students two years of Latin and three years of French. Through their study of a foreign language, students acquire a better understanding of the people, their language, and their customs.

Dick Shannonhouse, Janey Nottingham, Laura Watson, Brigitte Hurtt, Jeff Davis, and Pat Tankard use tape recorder under Miss Jacob's direction. Brigitte placed eighth out of one thousand two hundred and eighty contestants in the National French I Contest.

Jane Kellam, Betty Rogers, Janey Nottingham, Brigitte Hurtt, Hannah Henderson, and Phyllis Bradshaw sing French songs as a part of their French course.

Pat Lusk, Henry Floyd, Dale Goffigan, Marlo Cole, Shirley Stine, Ann Spady, Mickey Outten, and Cathe Blais study English derivatives of Latin.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION HEALTH

Cynthia Mapp, Susan Gardner, Anna Nye, and Becky Colonna participate in a volleyball game as one of their group sports in physical education.

Physical Education and Health classes offer opportunity for physical development through calisthenics and sports as well as for learning good health habits and first aid. Three years of physical education are required for graduation. Ninth grade students are required to take driver education as part of their physical education program.

In health programs conducted during their physical education classes, students learn basic first aid. As an extension of this program Mrs. Fluvanna Ferebee, our school nurse, visits once a month to confer with students who have special health problems.

DRIVER EDUCATION CHALLENGE

During their first year of physical education, eighth grade boys participate in tumbling and gymnastics.

B squad, under the direction of Danny White, engage in formal calisthenics as a part of daily routine.

As part of Driver Education, which is taught in ninth and tenth grades, students may take instruction in "behind-the-wheel" driving. Debbie Arnold and Beth Wise take advantage of this in the new driver education car.

TOMORROW'S HOMEMAKERS AND

Phyllis Bradshaw and Gwen Bundick design and make a Christmas tree skirt.

MRS. VIRGINIA O. SAVEDGE

With the recent emphasis placed on vocational education by our Federal government, NHS offers to its students, courses in typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, and general business. Many of the courses can be applied either in a job employment situation or for personal use.

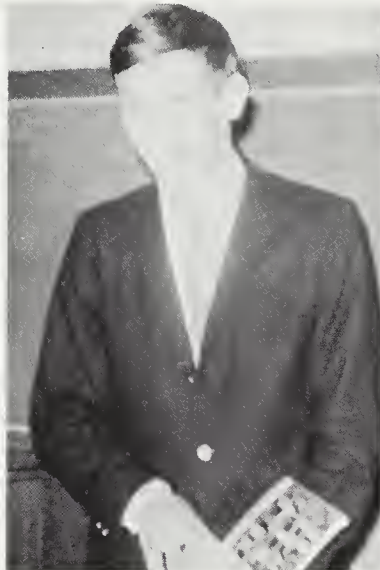

Dan White, Dixon Leatherbury, Hubert Doughty, Kathleen Turner, Janey Nottingham, and Jo Gregory are taught tabulation by Hr. Ashby as part of the requirements for Typing I.

PREPARE FOR VOCATIONS

Jim Wood demonstrates the art of selling to the customer in a sales demonstration. Albert Mason gives a sales presentation to DE III class. Larry Crosley applies his DE classroom instruction to "on-the-job" training.

MR. CHARLES HARRIS

Sponsor of Distributive Education Club, Coordinator of Distributive Education

Distributive Education offers students opportunities for classroom instruction and "on-the-job" training. A three-year sequence of courses is offered, starting in the tenth grade. "One-the-job" training is included in the eleventh and twelfth grades.

Maggie Badger shows the finer points of cosmetics to Dorotha Culver in a sales demonstration for DE II class.

Geraldine Mears, Patricia Tankard, and Cindy Mathewson review merchandise manual entries for the DECA District Contest.

ART AND MUSIC FOSTER SELF EXPRESSION

Steve Lewis and Diane Hope paint the ceramics they made in art class.

Tony Partin and George Metz find perspective drawing has its problems.

Mrs. Ellen Camden teaches art and Mr. Jay Meek teaches music at Northampton High and at Cheriton, Birdsnest, and Exmore-Willis Wharf elementary schools.

The Music Department, with Mr. Meek as its director, has 47 members, who are from all five grades. During a school year the band is engaged in various activities both as a class and as an organization. As a class, the band learns the fundamentals of expression and the techniques to be used in performance. As an organization, it uses talent and labor in performing for school functions, football games, pep rallies, and at public events, such as Armed Forces Day and the Exmore Chamber of Commerce Christmas program. The Band also gives an annual spring concert in connection with the school chorus.

Art students have opportunities for creative expression and development of techniques. The Art Department displays its work on attractive bulletin boards in the hall at regular intervals. Students have the opportunity of electing four years of art training.

Johnny Downing rolls his clay while Bill Valos uses the potter's wheel.

Bess Cowling plays the alto clarinet.

Right: Mary Mapp and Patty Hopkins, as well as the entire band, spend many hours of rehearsal in preparation for the spring concert.

Drummers, Frank Duntun and Shirley Stine, practice their solos under the direction of Mr. Meek.

57 ACHIEVE FIRST SEMESTER HONOR ROLL

All Northampton High School students both General and College Preparatory, are included on the Honor Roll for the first semester 1965-66 in which they achieved an average of 91% with no grade below C. The following received this honor:

CLEANLINESS. Custodians Rufus Thompson and Percell Wid-geon keep our building clean and neat.

ORGANIZATIONS

S.C.A. INITIATES JUDICIARY

The S.C.A. officers, Donald Stine (vice-president), Reed Ennis (treasurer), Bess Cowling (Secretary), Vivian Whitted (president), and sponsors Mr. James and Mr. Wescott used their lunch periods for the Christmas mail service.

Those participating in the panel discussion on the Honor Code were Mrs. Nottingham, Mr. Badger, Reed Ennis (moderator), Hannah Henderson, Wendy Pusey, and Billy Mason.

The S.C.A. was one of the school's most energetic organizations throughout the year. It initiated several new activities including a Christmas card mail service, a Library Week campaign, and a Cafeteria Clean-Up Week. It's most laborious project was revising the school handbook, but its biggest achievement was establishing a student court, the Student Judiciary Committee. The S.J.C. (Student Court) consisted of three twelfth graders, two eleventh graders one tenth grader, one ninth grader, and one eighth grader. The S.C.A. president, Vivian Whitted, presided. Minor infractions were referred to the court for discipline.

First Row: Reed Ennis, Wendy Pusey, Elizabeth Cowling, Janey Nottingham, Martha Fountaine, Joan Duer, Ginny Floyd.
Second Row: William Mason, Donald Stine, John Lansdale, Otto Shreaves, Kathyanne Parker, Margaret Outten, Pat Lusk.
Third Row: Bonnie Pusey, Vivian Whitted, Thomas Merritt, Kathleen Turner, Betsy Whittington, Fred Richardson, David Partin.

BETA ENCOURAGES EXCELLENCE

To finance the trip to the Beta Convention (Roanoke, Virginia), Northampton's chapter of the National Beta Club sold stationery and sponsored its annual Beta Night. These two financial ventures were so successful that the club treasury exceeded its usual amount and contained over $1,000 before the Roanoke trip. Beta also contributed toward the purchase of a water cooler. The newly elected officers, Ernie Gibb (president), Patricia Tankard (vice-president), and Jane Kellam (secretary-treasurer), and Phyllis Bradshaw (chaplain), were installed and the sixteen new members were inducted in March.

Pictured here are Vivian Whitted (vice-president), Wendy Pusey (president), and Anne Watson (secretary-treasurer).

Miss Lila Jacob has served as sponsor of the N.H.S. Beta Club since its organization in 1962.

CAMERA FIENDS HAVE BUSY YEAR

Row: Scotty Scott, Tommy Palmer, Buck Mapp, Steve Bralley, Allen Rowe, Larry Crosley, Stephen Vass, Frank Duntton, Jamie Turner, Elton Gladden, Tommy Webb.

The activities of the Camera Club were focused primarily on the fundamentals of picture taking and processing. Members had the opportunity of enlarging their own negatives in the school darkroom and of entering pictures in the Picture-of-the-Week contest, an activity to encourage competition and to cultivate interest in better photography. Films and slides made available through the Kodak and Ansco Companies supplemented the activities of the members. The club is sponsored by Mr. Burleigh Turner.

Clyde Small, Rawlings Scott, and Jim Henderson served as photographers for the Torch Staff this year.

Clyde Small won the first Picture-of-the-Week Contest.

TRI-HI-Y'S SERVE

JUNIOR TRI-HI-Y Ginny Dix, Joan Duer, Jane Shackelford, Abbey Reynolds, (treasurer), Ann Nottingham, (vice-president), Peggy Outten, (president), Joan Doughty, (secretary), Jeanne Bowen, Dale Goffigon, Lu Anne Gibbs.

SENIOR TRI-HI-Y Bonnie Pusey (president), Becky Kellam (vice-president), Mary Lee Outten (secretary), Mary Anne Floyd (chaplain), Jane Kellam, Bobby Edwards (treasurer), Jamine Massey, Bess Cowling, Laura Watson, Mary Lou Burnley, Kathleen Turner, Betsy Whittington, Pat Korleski, Ellen Wood, Charlotte Adkins, Jo Gregory,

SCHOOL AND COMMUNITY

and Laura Watson presented gifts to Mrs. Mapp who distributed them to needy families in the community.

Mr. Fulton Johnson, Executive Secretary of Virginia District YMCA, spoke at the Tri-Hi-Y's Induction Service.

The Jr. and Sr. Tri-Hi-Y's had an active year in both the school and community. In addition to conducting the daily devotional and offering the blessing, both clubs arranged a monthly bulletin board. Other activities included the Induction Service, which was held on December 8, and a survey of the school's standards. As a community project the junior club made Thanksgiving favors for the hospital and the senior club donated money for a basket of food to be given to a needy family. Although both clubs sponsored the annual White Christmas campaign, the senior club made favors for the hospital patients.

At the District Conference two members of the Sr. Tri-Hi-Y were elected for office in the district and one for Model General Assembly. Four girls attended Model General Assembly in April: Mary Anne Floyd (Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate), Mary Lee Outten (delegate), Hannah Henderson (senator), and Shirley Rue (page). The sponsors of the Sr. Tri-Hi-Y are Miss Margaret Scott and Mrs. Bertie Henderson; the sponsors of the Jr. Tri-Hi-Y are Mrs. Betsy Klein and Mr. Berkley Ashby.

DEBATE PROVOKES THOUGHT

Margaret Rogers, Helen Terry, Reed Ennis, Mr. Kenneth Webb (sponsor), Mr. Ernest James (assistant-sponsor), Ernie Gibb, Donald Stine, Kiel Martin, Betty Jane Rogers, and Jimmy Mitchell.

RESOLVED: THAT COMIC BOOKS SHOULD BE BANNED FROM PUBLICATION. Reed Ennis expounds the virtues of adopting the proposition as Margaret Rogers impatiently awaits his questions and Kiel Martin relaxes.

LITERARY CLUB ORGANIZED

Members of the Literary Club: G. W. Adkins, Joe Ferebee, George Mapp, Jerome Nottingham, Mel Doughty, Charles Floyd, Mrs. Margaret Holland (sponsor), Margaret Rogers, and Katherine Leatherbury.

Although small in membership, the newly organized Literary Club enjoyed a successful first year at Northampton. Encouraged by their sponsor, Mrs. Margaret Holland, the members read widely, gave monologues, choral readings, and character impersonations as portions of their monthly program. In addition, the club held informal discussions on types of literature and established a small library.

THE OFFICERS OF THE LITERARY CLUB: Katherine Leatherbury (vice-president), Patricia Tankard (secretary-treasurer), and Margaret Rogers (president), are not always in complete accord.

BAND IS LARGE THIS YEAR

BAND MEMBERS: Charlotte Adkins, Bill Alford, Marlo Cole, Bess Cowling (vice-president), Allen Daughtrey, Debbie Dennis, Hubert Doughty, Gary Drummond, Barbara Duer, Joan Duer, Farnk Dunton, Margaret Engle, Henry Floyd, Mary Floyd (president), Eddie Gibb, Hannah Henderson, Pat Hopkins, Brigitte Hurtt, Sue Kilborn, J. T. Mapp (secretary), Mary Mapp, Keith Marshall, Dwight Matthews, Cindy Mathewson, Alfred Nottingham, Peggy

Outten (chaplain), Mike Pollock, Kathyanne Parker, Jimmy Payne, Phil Phillips, Bonnie Pusey, Betty Jane Rogers, Allen Rowe, Danny Savage, Jane Shckleford, Al Shreaves (treasurer) Eddie Snith, Shirley Stine, Pam Tankard, Westcott Terry, Charlene Travis, Jamie Turner, Kermit Vandegrift, Steven Vass, Tommy Webb, Mr. J. B. Meek (director).

The NHS Symphonic Band, composed of students from grades eight through twelve, was one of the largest bands in recent years at Northampton. Although there were more eighth graders than usual, the band was strong and well balanced.

The sections consisted of brass: six Saxophones, four trombones, eight cornets, Sousaphone, tuba, French horn; woodwind: eighteen clarinets, flute; and percussion: piano, bells, two snare drums, bass drum.

The band played for home football games and the annual Christmas program put on by the town of Exmore. The first concert of the year was held on March 11.

Mr. Meek spot-checks different sections during rehearsal.

Senior Bonnie Pusey directs the ensemble of out-going seniors: Cindy Mathewson, Mary Floyd, Barbara Duer, and J. T. Mapp.

CHORAL GROUP SINGS IN CONCERT

The Choral Music Group is open to all students interested in singing. Some of the members participated in a Band Concert in which the Choral Group rendered several numbers.

DE CLUB WINS FIVE AWARDS

Kit Mears. Third Row: Charles Harris (coordinator), George Rehl, Donnie Moore, Gene Colonna, Ruby Brady, Waverly Spence, Jim Wood, Albert Mason, Ronnie West, Bob Carpenter.

FIRST PLACE. In the Tidewater District DECA contests, John Payne placed first in the Job Interview, Patricia Tankard, first in Public Speaking; Cindy Mathewson, first in Advertising.

SECOND PLACE. James Wood placed second in Sales Demonstration; Larry Crosley, second in DE Student of the Year.

NHS ADDS TWO NEW CLUBS

Bess Custis (president), Kathy East, Mrs. Virginia Savedge, (sponsor), Brenda Moore, Linda Floyd, and Jo Ann Sayers.

THE HANDICRAFT CLUB, organized in September of 1965, by its sponsor, Mrs. Virginia Savedge, presently enrolls students of the Home Economics classes. All members work on projects such as smocking, knitting, lamp shades, and Flemish florals, during the club period or in their leisure time.

Modern magazine articles keep Jimmy Henderson up to date on new boating ideas.

Rawlings Scott, Bobby Snyder (treasurer), John Mason Stewart, Jim Henderson (president), Wayne Robinson, Jimmy Hopper, Al Shreaves, Dick Shannonhouse, Jackie

Bowen, Melvin Doughty, Douglas Outten, (secretary), Jeff Davis, Myron Marsh, Gregory Downing, Bob Summers, and Howard Travis.

THE NORTHAMPTON BOATING CLUB, organized on October 13, 1965, is sponsored by Mr. John Badger. It is composed of junior and senior boys of NHS who own and operate motor boats. The general purpose of the club is to promote navigation safety, boat maintenance, and to extend courtesy of open water.

ROCKET AND CHESS OFFER CHALLENGES

Bill Shannonhouse, Tom Fountaine. Fourth Row: Jimmy Prince, Ira Higbee, Jimmy Payne, Mike Routzong, Westcott Terry, H. M. Arnold, Donald Stine. Fifth Row: Jackie Bowen, Billy Lewis, Eric Shrieves, Danny Gershowitz, Jeff Davis. (Not in picture are Charlotte Adkins, John Lansdale, Steve McCready, Bub Shreaves, Carol Taylor, and Mrs. Parker (sponsor)).

The Monogram Club divided its projects for the year into three main areas: school, community, and athletic. The club's contribution to the community was the preparation and donation of a basket of food to the needy at Thanksgiving. The project of the school and athletic divisions was the purchase of a school banner. At meetings to encourage teamwork, club members planned group projects providing service and recreation and viewed sports movies.

The members of the Monogram Club enjoy films on various sports as part of their monthly meetings.

The NHS Pep Club, the largest club in the school, had 125 members this year.

With renewed vigor, the NHS Pep Club reorganized itself, drew up a constitution, and proceeded to support all athletic events of the 1965-66 school year. In addition to selling mums for Homecoming night, the club sponsored a Football Week and a Basketball Week. Club members not only painted signs to advertise games and to offer encouraging words to the teams, but, also, sold candy, programs, and tickets at the games.

Bill Mason and Steve Lewis enjoy their lunches prepared by Beth Wise, Debbie Wilson, Debbie Bailey, and Cathy Blais.

KEEN COMPETITION IN GOLF

The 1965 Golf team had an outstanding year with its new coach, Mr. Charles A. Harris, at the helm. Out of 8 games played, only the second was lost. Bill Shannonhouse, skipper of the team, placed 4th in the State; the team won the District Championship. The team is fortunate that all members will be back next year with the benefit of a year's experience.

AND TRACK

The 1965 Northampton track team ended its year sadly but with great hopes for the coming season. Having lost seven seniors, because of graduation the previous year, the team banked mostly on inexperienced freshmen and sophomores. The 1966 season is very promising as only three seniors were lost. Our hopes are on the shoulders of our coaches, Kenneth Parker and William Okaley, as well as on those of Donald Stine, Danny Gershowitz, and Ira Higbee, the 1966 seniors.

JACKETS ROLL OVER OPPONENTS

The 1965 baseball team steam-rolled over their opponents under the leadership of co-captains Billy Prettyman and Keith Colonna; the team ended the season with a 15 win, 3 loss, 1 tie record.

Among the best games of the season was the game in which Northampton beat James Blair 8 to 5; the first time we have beaten James Blair in any sport in five years. "Let us continue."

FIGURES GIVE THE FACTS

The girls' softball team, ably coached by Mrs. Elizabeth Skeen, added a winning season to their lengthening list of good years. They won eight out of ten games, rolling over Central twice with large margins and beat their greatest rival, Cape

Charles, with a comfortable score. The Co-captains, Judy Hopper and Barbara Oakley, deserve credit for leading the team to a victorious season.

In the 1966 season, the Varsity and J.V. Cheerleaders inspired the Jackets on to victory and aroused school spirit by presenting pep rallies and related projects. One of the projects was the building of Northampton's only Homecoming float. Old-timers say this float numbers among the most beautiful ever seen on the Shore. The maiden voyage of this queen of the fleet was commanded by Queen Barbara Ann Oakley, whose Senior attendant was Bobbie Edwards.

COACH PARKER PLANS AHEAD

The players and coaches of the 1965 football team are already planning for next year. This year the team, which was mostly a green squad, did not show up too well in the cold light of statistics; however, they gained valuable experience, and eighteen lettermen will return next year.

Several of the players won laurels this-year; among the more outstanding were Bruce Lambertson and John Lansdale, who both won all District I, Group 2, first defensive team. John was also named Most Valuable Player of the year. Guy Dorey gained Honorable Mention as offensive fullback and Steve McCready, Honorable Mention as defensive tackle.

An unrecognized but very important part of the team is the managers and trainers, who handle the "miles of adhesive tape" that keep a team going. They did a good job this year.

To keep the team in shape during the off-season, Coach Parker has organized an extensive and highly successful athletic training program for the boys who do not play basketball.

The coaches, Mr. Parker, Mr. Oakley, and Mr. Webb, are all confident that 1966 will be an undefeated season for the Jackets.

BILL LEWIS HIGH SCORER

Hampered by injuries and inexperience, the Yellow Jackets started the season slowly, but went on to record a season's record of 10 won and 8 lost, with a conference total of 4 and 6. The team rallied toward the end of the season and tied Poquoson for fourth place and a tourney berth. However, exhausted from a hectic schedule of make-up games after an eight-day snow vacation, they lost the sudden-death play off, 49 to 69.

The high scorer for the year was Bill Lewis, with a season total of 229 points. He was closely followed by Tommy Merritt and Steve Lewis.
